LEGAL DISCLAIMER

Air carrier liability for passengers and their baggage is governed by the Montreal Convention of 28 May 1999 and Regulation (EC) No 2027/97 (amended by Regulation No 889/2002). There are no financial limits to the liability for passenger injury or death. For damages up to 113,100 Special Drawing Rights (SDRs) per passenger, the air carrier cannot contest claims for compensation. Above that amount, the air carrier can defend itself against a claim by proving that it was not negligent or otherwise at fault. In case of damages caused by passenger delay, our liability is limited to 4,694 SDRs per passenger. In the event of baggage destruction, loss, damage or delay, our liability is limited to 1,131 SDRs per passenger. If the value of the baggage exceeds the above limit, the passenger can benefit from a higher liability limit by making a special declaration at the latest at check-in and by paying a supplementary fee. If checked baggage is damaged, delayed, lost or destroyed, the passenger must inform the air carrier in writing as soon as possible and in any case within seven days for damaged baggage and within 21 days for delayed baggage. These time limits are calculated from the date on which the baggage was placed at the passenger's disposal. Any action in court to claim damages must be brought within two years from the date of the flight. The above provisions on liability limits are included in the Vueling Conditions of Carriage applicable to this contract and are available on the website (www.vueling.com) and at the Vueling sales offices at airports.
